

Welcome Friends

In our fast paced lives it sometimes seems nothing is constant but change itself. Having served our valued customers for 20 years, Charleston Alexander is a living testament to tradition-one defined by consistency and change, passion and commitment.

For the Charleston Alexander Collection we have carefully selected jewelry characterized by exceptional style, reflecting today's trends while representing an air of classic elegance. The designers featured are among the very finest names in design, quality and value.

It is our pleasure and privilege to serve you in the celebrations that grace your lives. Our tradition of inviting elegance and our commitment to providing the ultimate shopping experience is a passion that drives each and every employee throughout the year. We have held true to the belief that integrity and value never go out of style.

Please enjoy these pages with our compliments. When a special occasion looms among those you cherish, let us show you that Charleston Alexander is truly the place where celebrations begin.

Yours in Service,

John Sabet
